

EYECARE PARTNERS APPOINTS CEO

Listed optometry practices company Eyecare Partners has appointed Mr Michael Kotow as chief executive officer, succeeding Mrs Sandra Andersen in the position. Mrs Andersen retired from the position for “personal reasons”.

Mr Kotow is an optometrist whose executive career has involved working with multinational companies Allergan in Australia and The Cooper Companies in Australia and Asia.

He was vice-president Asia Pacific for CooperVision and managing director of Hydron Australia and New Zealand.

His appointment to Eyecare Partners commenced on 2 March.
